Just Starting in Journalism.

(New York Weekly.)

Jinks (at a meeting)—That man you asked about is not a delegate. He is a reporter.

Blinks—Um—he must be a new man, then. Just starting in journalism, isn't he?

Yes. How did you know?

"Oh, he has a sort of solid, prosperous, moneyed air."

It Was Too High.

(Drake's Magazine.)

Author—What do you see wrong about my sketch?

Editor—This mountain you describe is just 8000 feet higher than any mountain in the known world. The American reader will stand considerable exaggeration without kicking, but I am afraid this is too much. You must lower that mountain at least 7000 feet if you expect me to publish your sketch.

Before and After Using.

(Philadelphia Times.)

"Why don't you go to work?" she asked of the tramp.

"I am a working, lady."

"At what? You show no sign of it."

"No matter for that, mum; I'm a working as a traveling ad. for a soap firm. I'm the 'Before Using' card, and my partner around the corner represents the 'After Using' end of the combination. Thank you, mum."

THE MARKETS.

New York Stock Market.

New York, July 10.—The stock market is still awaiting developments especially as regards monetary possibilities as affected by the financial straits of Argentina Republic and Uruguay, whose disasters are expected to be reflected here through London. Today's market was reaction from the depression of yesterday, and in some directions exhibited more life than has been seen for some weeks. Just before the close bidder Peabody & Co. engaged $1,000,000 for export and pre-empted the selling movement, which reached all portions of the list and a large proportion of the material gains were lost. The market closed weak at a concession. Most of the list, however, is fractionally higher tonight.

Government bonds steady.

Petroleum opened irregular and weak at 8 1/2c for August, and was then firm at 8 3/4c. The market declined but reacted, closing steady.
